MEMORIES"

Hinds College
Raymond, Mississippi
Editor — Ken Anderson
Advisor — Bob Hodges

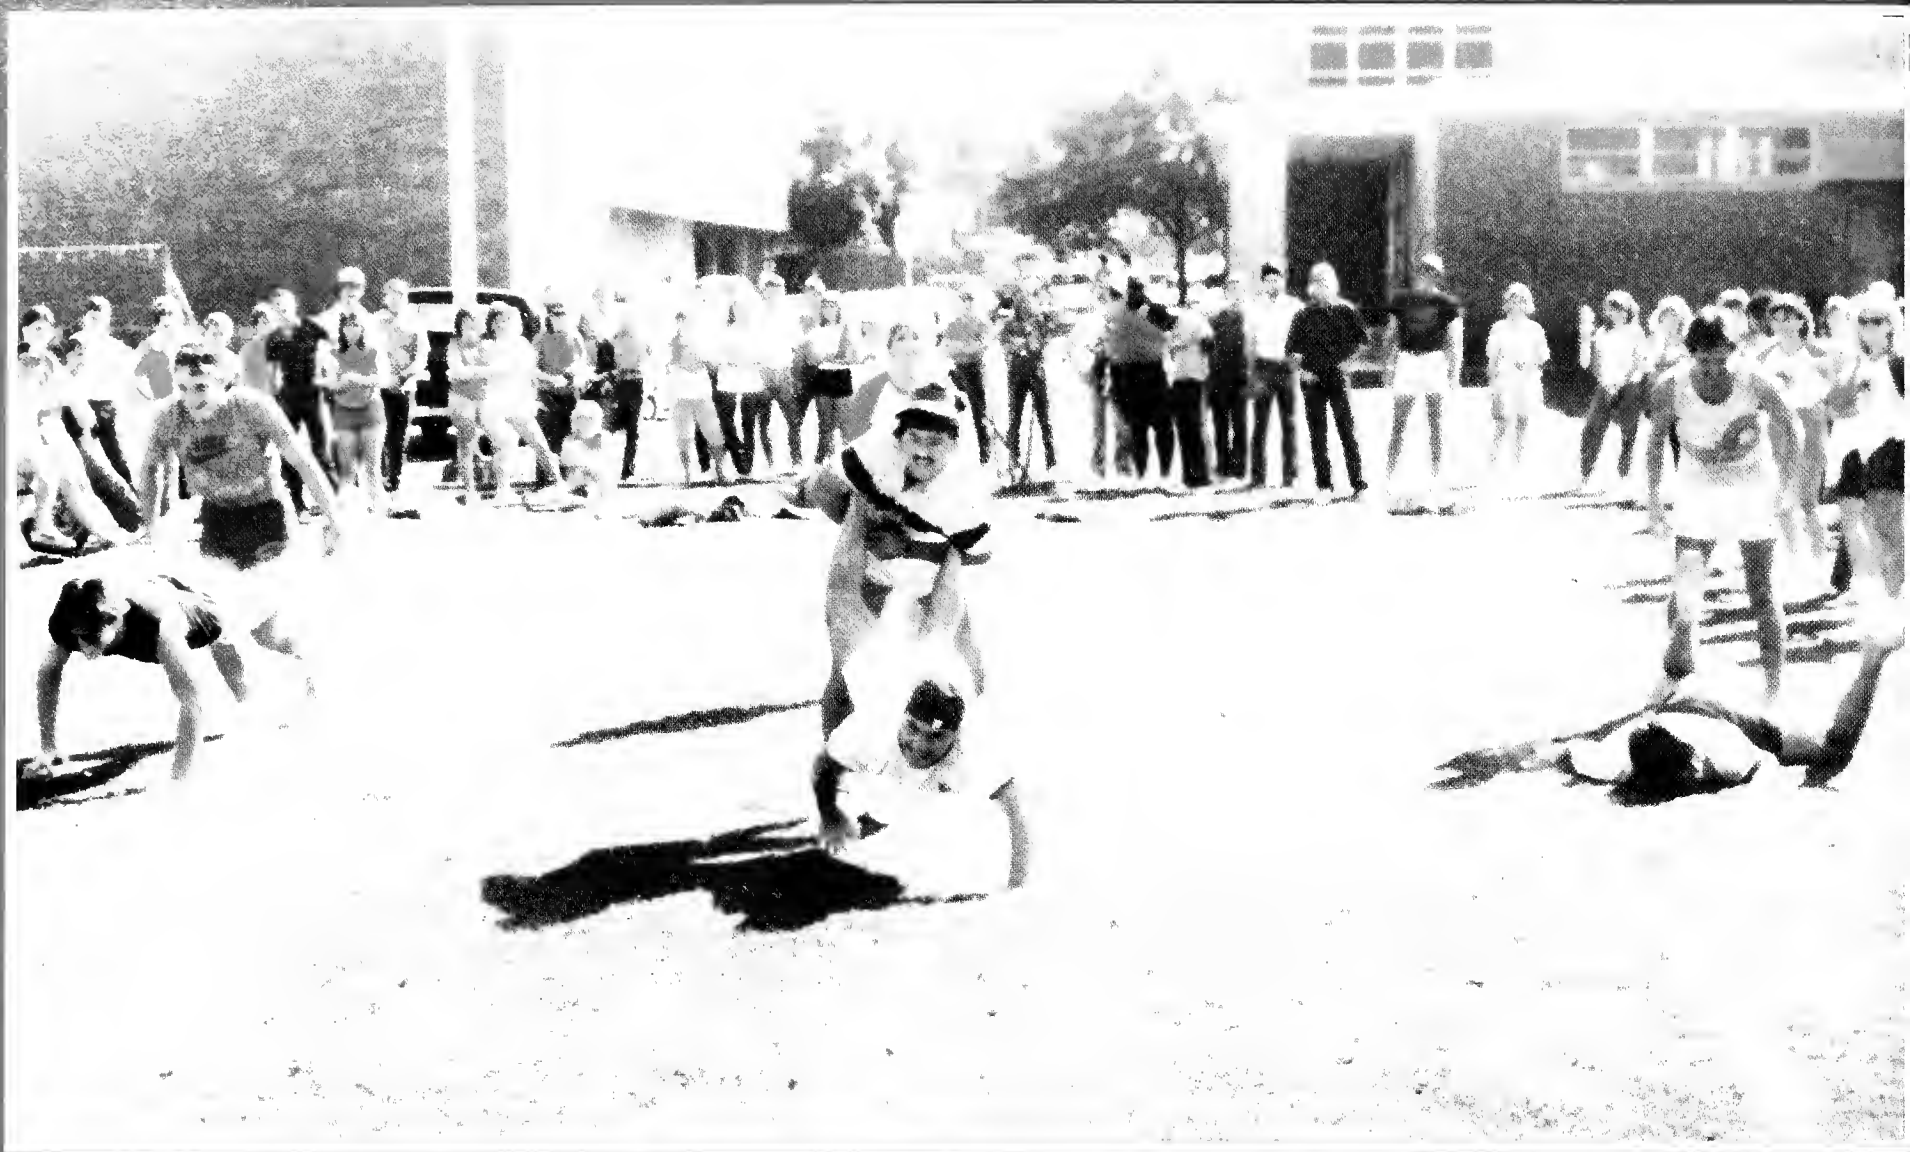

Faces

Memories of faces at Hinds, sometimes happy, friendly, and sometimes sad. Through these faces we came to know each other as friends. Seeing these cheerful faces each day helped us manage through all the hard times as the year drew to a close. We were not saddened by each departure, because we knew that we had something that nobody could take from us, the memories of the faces of our friends.

Events

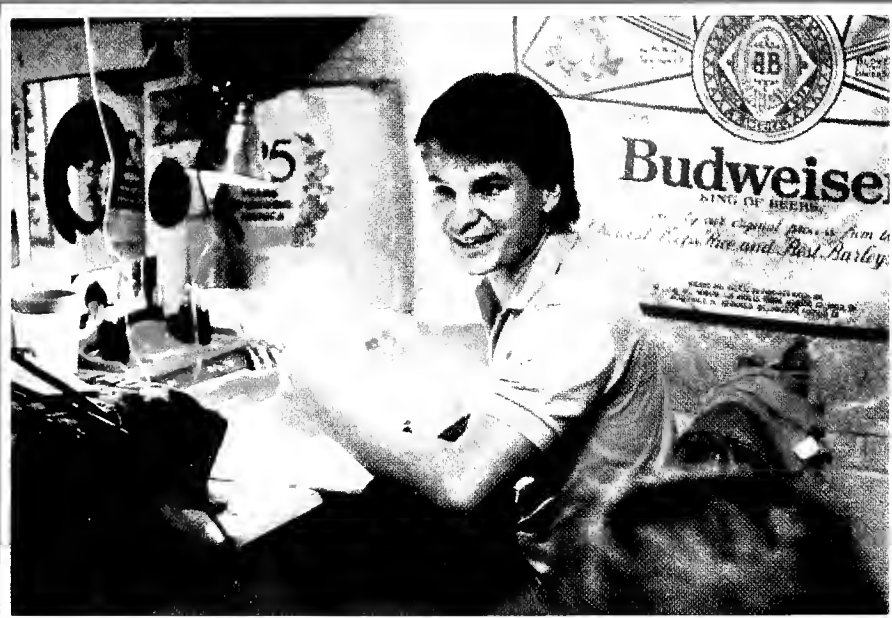

Memories of the many events at Hinds include those of Hiney-Ho Day, dances, and Arts Feast Week. We divided our time in hopes of becoming well-rounded. There were so many places to go and things to see. Our campus thrived with the bustle of activity and we each found our own form of special entertainment.

Lifestyles

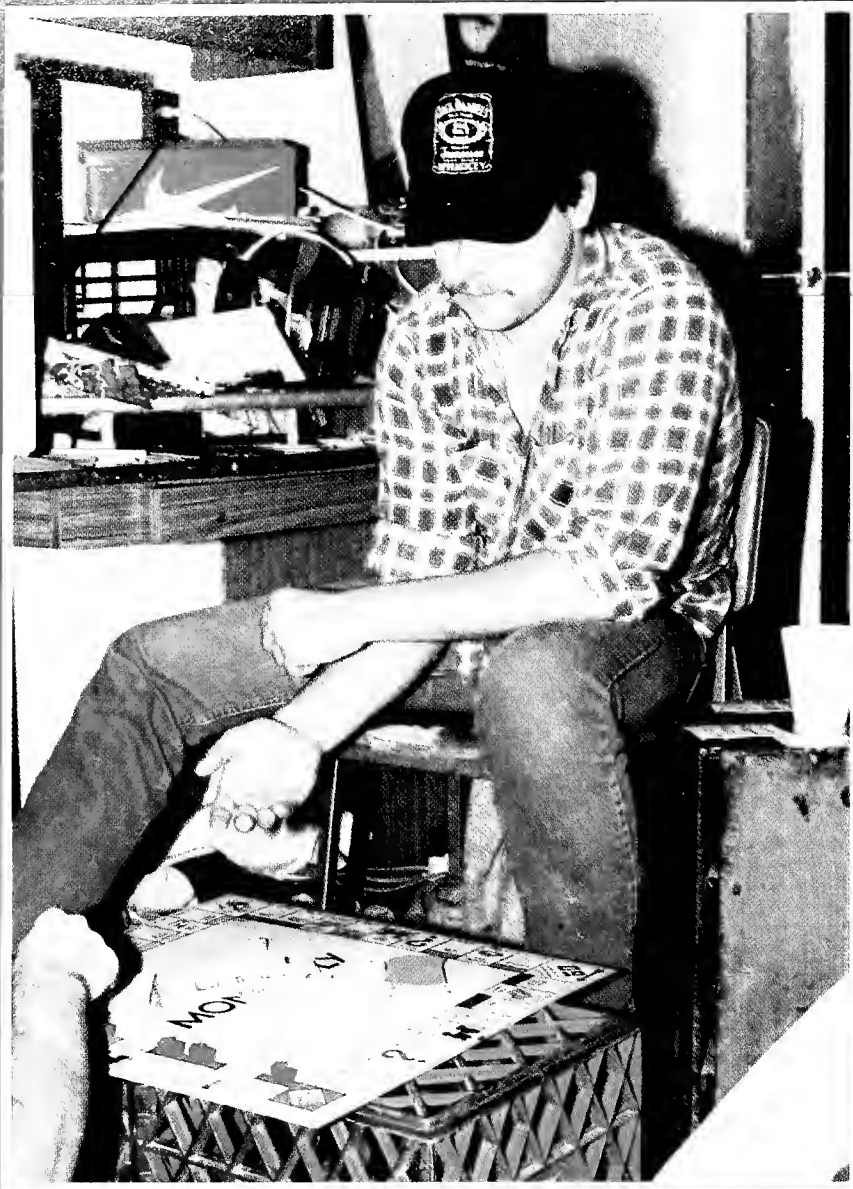

The memories of our lifestyles at Hinds are ones of togetherness and yet as individuals with each having his own differentiating qualities. From all geographical areas and backgrounds we came together to combine our various lifestyles.

Play

Memories of play at Hinds are ones of parties, intramural sports, or even a quiet evening of playing chess in the dorm. Not wanting this special time in our life to pass us by we would at times stay up until the wee hours of the dawn. We may have been considered crazy, even wild, but we knew how to have fun in our moments of play.

Teachers

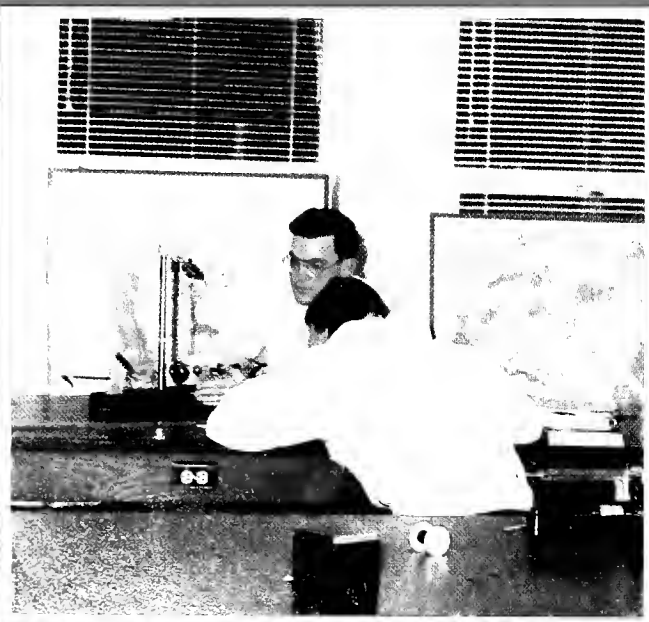

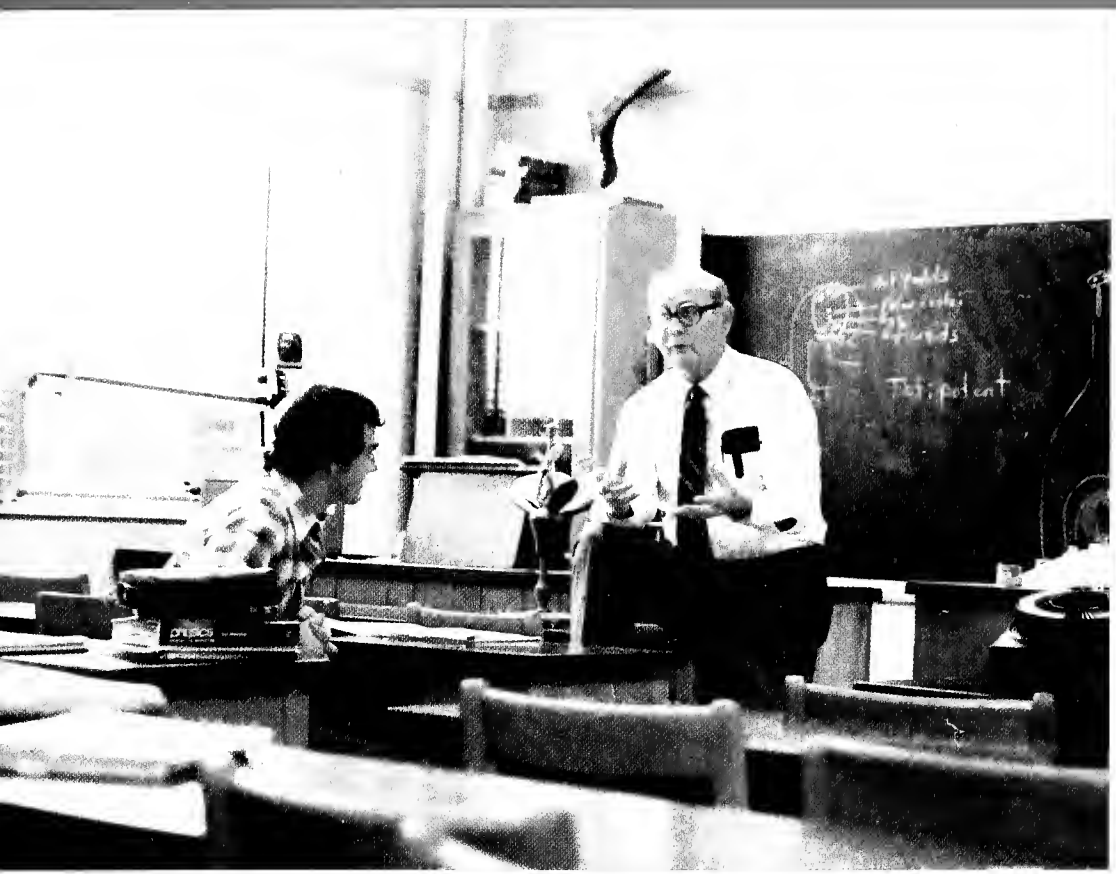

Memories of the many teachers are ones that included work, work, and more work. To our amazement we had much to learn and we had dedicated people undertaking the task of building a foundation for our future. Each had their own area of special training and with both patience and understanding passed this knowledge on to us. With the willingness to learn we eagerly accepted what each teacher had to give.

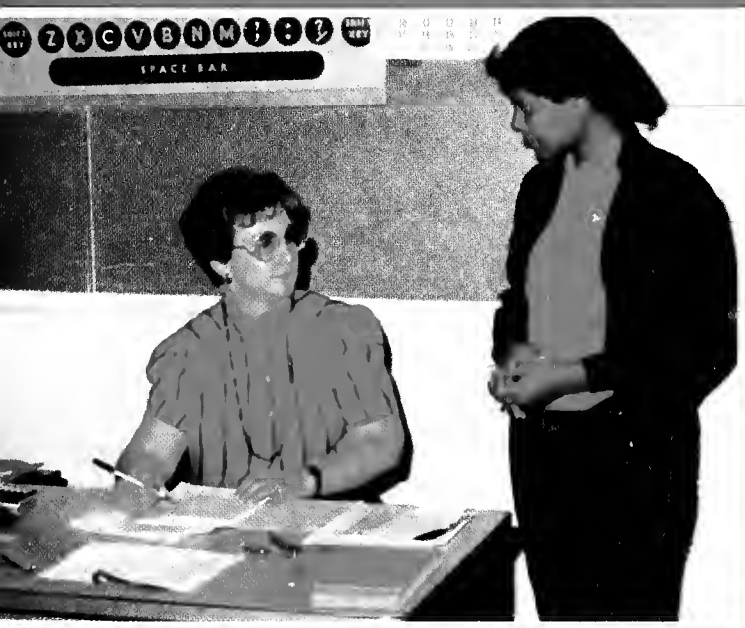

Classes

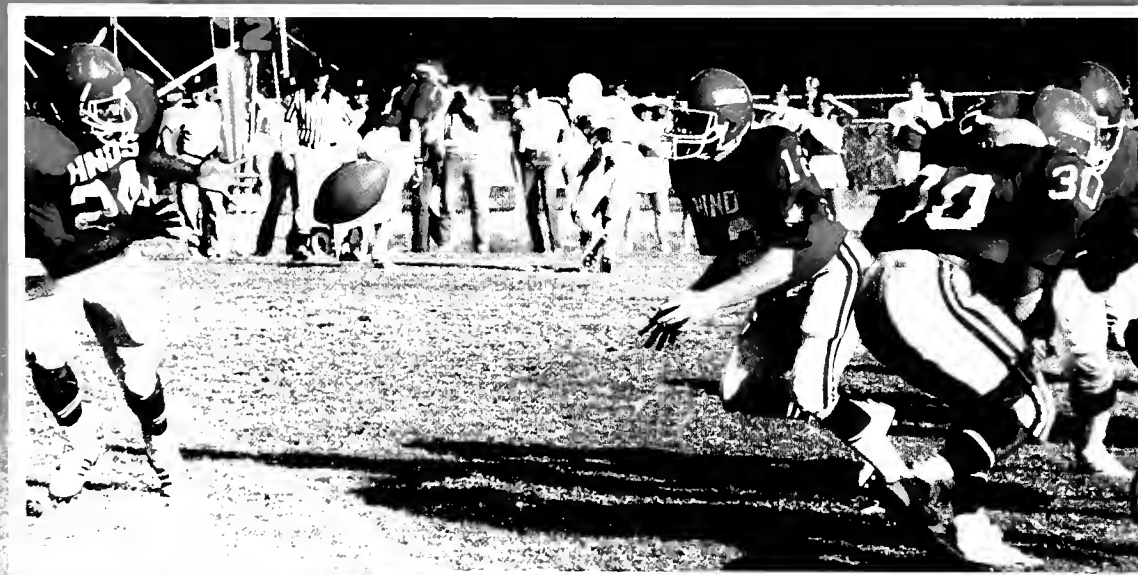

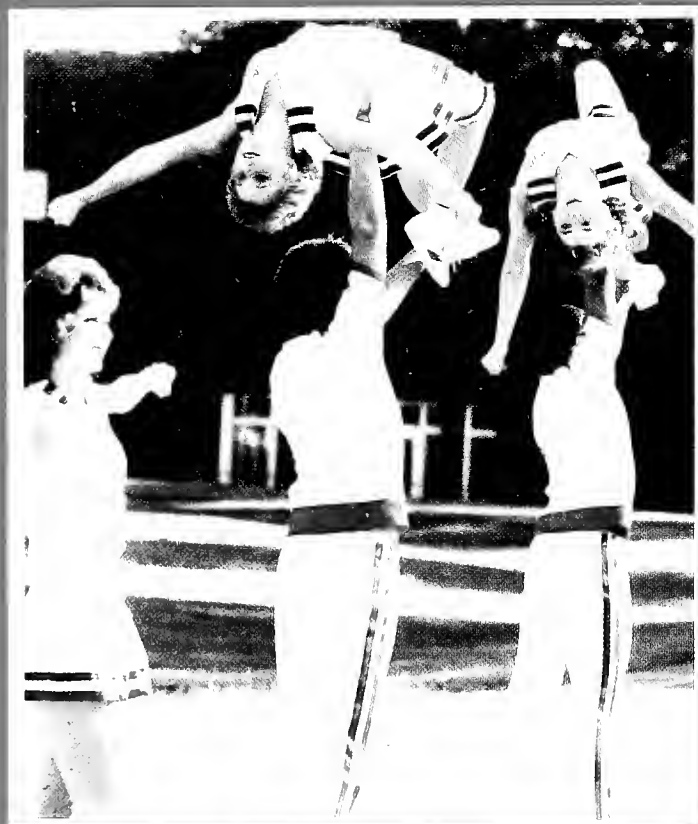

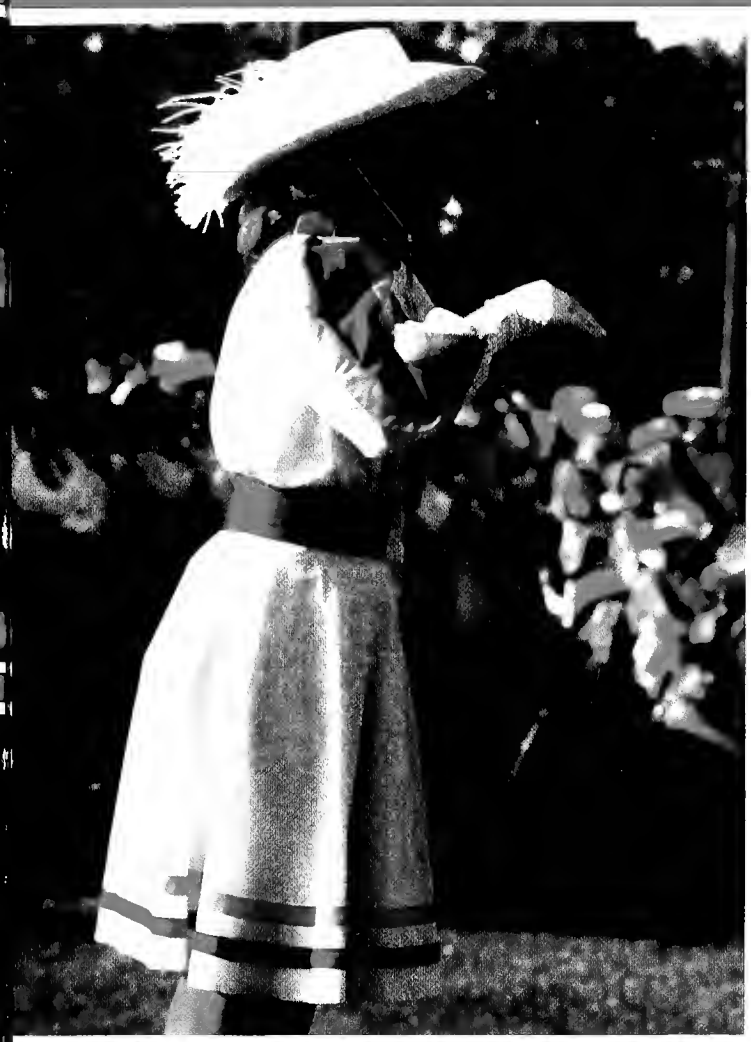

Memories of the classes at Hinds are ones that will be with us for the rest of our lives. The times that we were placed into a cubical room with but a textbook to comfort us, going through a strict regime of test, term papers, and endless questions with complicated answers made us realize that obtaining knowledge is an endless process.

performances

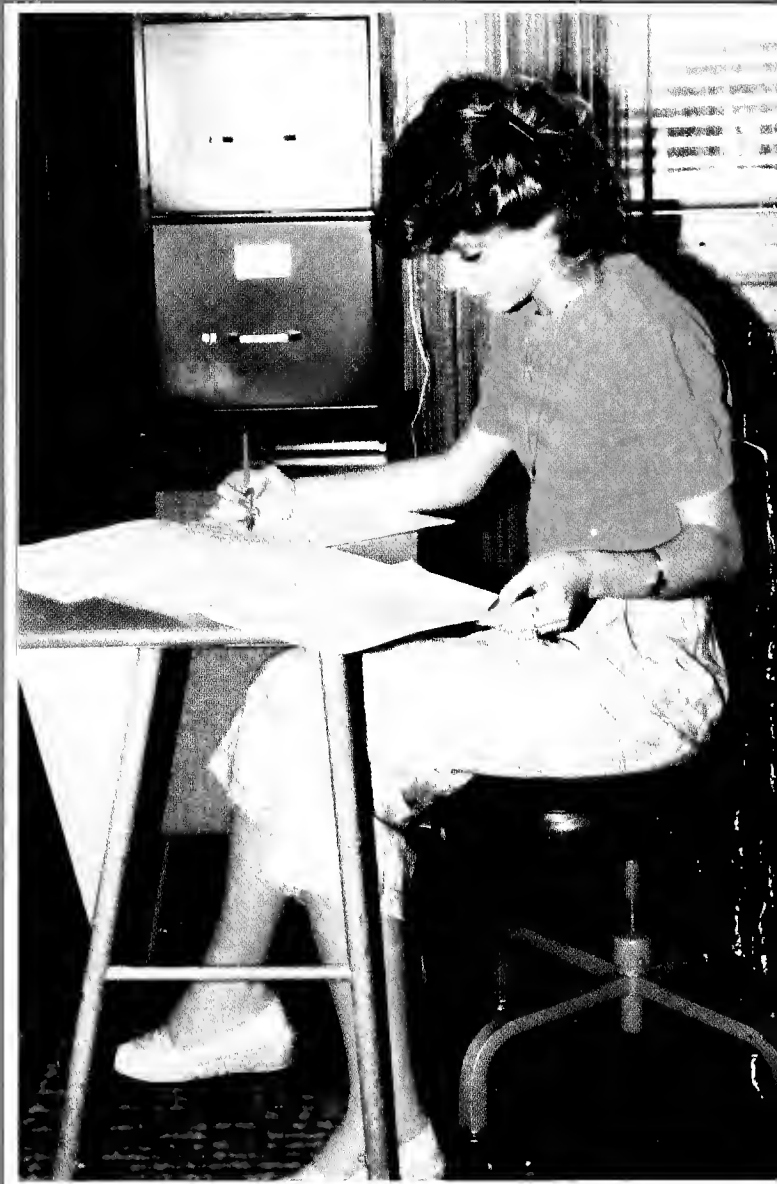

Memories of performances are ones of various choices which include the Hi-Steppers, Lendon Player productions, and football games. Many were musically inclined, others spilled their hearts out on stage, and still others danced or sang for a pageant title. We showed that we wanted the best because we were the best. We were professional in our ability and carefree in our souls.

Study

The memories of study are ones of late night cramming for tests. We concentrated and put our heads together in quiet contemplation. After many hours of searching through dusty books and wearing down pencil after pencil we received the ultimate reward for our efforts . . . grades.

Look to this day, for yesterday is but a memory and tomorrow is only a vision, but today well lived makes every yesterday a memory of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope.

Dedication

The 1985 yearbook staff takes pride in dedicating the 1985 Eagle to Fred and Sue Brooks.

Fred and Sue Brooks are members of the faculty in the Speech and Theatre department.

The Brooks have been instrumental in the growth of this department of the college and are well respected by both students and faculty.

Fred Brooks is retiring this year after completing 35 years of teaching.

It is our honor that we dedicate the 1985 Eagle to Fred and Sue Brooks.

Arts Feast

Hiney-Ho Day

On October 31, 1984, R. A. JEANNIE MAYFIELD and the fourth floor of Hardy-Puryear sponsored Hiney-Ho 1984. The event, which was greatly enjoyed by all who participated and attended, was held to help raise money for a scholarship to be given to a Hinds student.

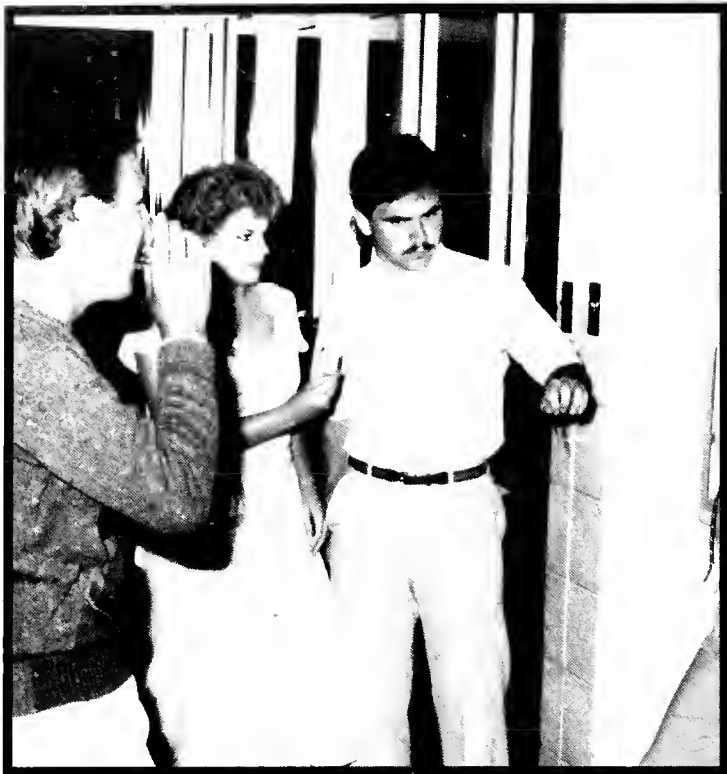

Lendon Players Production

The fall production presented by the Lendon Players was "Arsenic and Old Lace." The play was about two old maid aunts and their brother, all of whom were mentally disturbed and who welcomed guests by poisoning their tea.

Dances

Several times during the year, dances were held at Hinds. These allow students to break away from the studying, homework, and problems of college life and have fun.

Sister Thea Bowman

Mississippi and the Arts Week

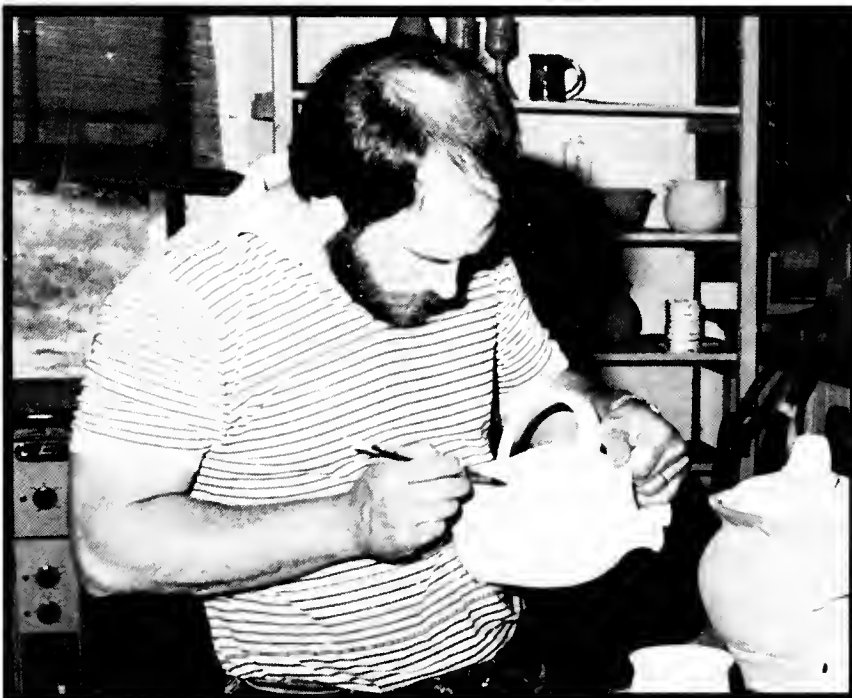

Mississippi and the Arts Week was held in the Spring and featured many well-known artists. These included Sister Thea Bowman, Barry Hannah, Helen Bryant, "Son" Thomas, Donny Baggett, to just mention a few. The week was co-sponsored by the Hinds Art, English, Music, Speech and Theatre Departments.

Registration

Registration is always a hectic time for students and faculty alike. Both look forward to seeing the last of the long lines and long hours that represent registration. Hinds registration is truly an experience for all college students to remember.

Registration

Miss Hinds Pageant

The Miss Hinds Pageant was held in the Spring last year. It is sponsored each year as a preliminary to the Miss Mississippi Pageant. Competition consists of swimsuit, evening gown, talent, and interview.

Murphy first woman coach

Dot Murphy, a former women's basketball coach at Mississippi University for Women, has been hired by the Hinds Junior College Athletic Department to coach the Eagles' wide receivers.

Murphy is the first woman football coach in the National Junior College Athletic Association's history, but has brought seven years of coaching experience to her new job. After receiving her B.S. from Mississippi University for Women in 1974, she was assistant women's basketball coach for a year at the University of Tennessee at Martin, Tennessee. While working on her Master's degree, which she earned in 1977 from Mississippi State University, she coached women's basketball at Itawamba Junior College. From 1977 to 1982 she coached at Mississippi University for Women.

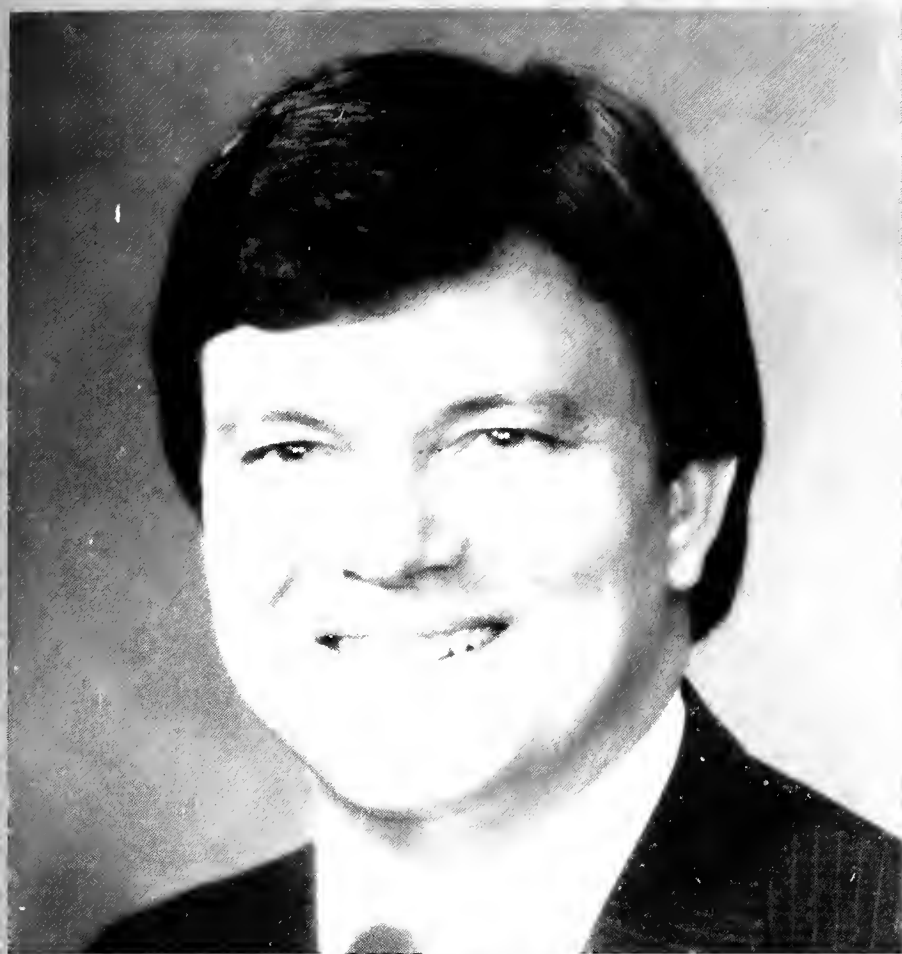

Throughout her undergraduate college career she won numerous sports and scholastic awards and played in national tournaments as well as taking a silver medal as a member of United States Women's Basketball team in the World University Games held in Moscow, Russia in 1973. She was also named Rookie of the Year in the National Women's Invitational Tournament in 1974, and was All American in 1972 and 1974.

Though she has no formal football coaching experience, Bill Buckner, head football coach for the Eagles, said, "She is working out fine and the receivers have responded well to her. She's an asset, catching on quickly to what we do."

Dr. Clyde Muse, president of the Hinds Junior College District stated, "She has the coaching skills to make a major contribution to our football program."

Murphy is married to Gene Murphy who has been coaching football at Hinds for one year. They have a son, Kelly, six years old, and a daughter, Jennifer, twenty-two months old.

JOHN COCROFT

In Memoriam

With unrelenting crescendo, the symphony of a life replete with melodic progression hastens to its finale. And a friendship that is ours to share, with its “largos” and “allegros” moves everlasting; onward in sweet memories.

Industrial Drafting

This is a one to two year drafting program with emphasis on basic and advanced drafting techniques and basic architectural drafting.

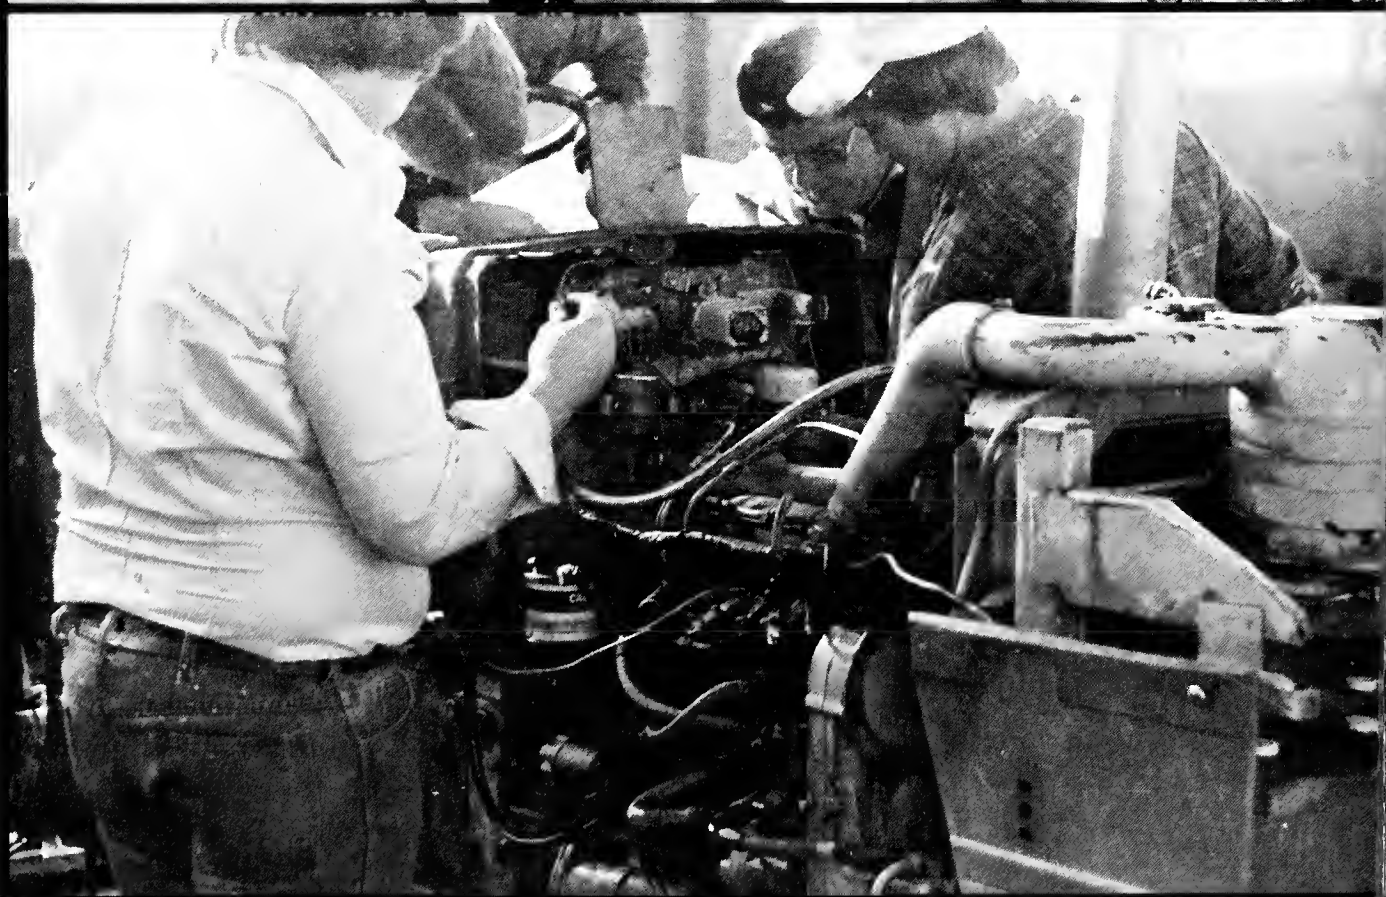

Electricity and Wiring

Upon completion of this program, a graduate will be capable of installing and maintaining electrical circuits, panels, and providing electrical service to commercial and industrial users.

Agricultural Diesel Mechanics

This program includes a study of engine design, use, maintenance and repair techniques of agricultural diesel machines.

Automotive Parts and Sales

This program includes theory, laboratory, shop work and other experiences relative to receiving, stocking, selling, and shipping merchandise in the automotive aftermarket.

Farm Management

This program is designed to teach students how to successfully handle all aspects of managing a farm.

Commercial Design and Advertising

Students in the CDA program learn layout, printing, and other aspects of design and advertising.

Automotive Body and Frame Repair

This program is designed to train for career opportunities as: sheet metal repair technician, painter, frame repair technician, service manager, insurance estimator, windshield and door glass technician.

Animal Health Technology

This program prepares students for employment as animal health technicians.

Meat Merchan- dising

This program is designed to give specialized training in the field of meat processing.

Barbering and Hair Care

This program includes theory, laboratory shopwork and other specialized learning experiences relative to haircutting, styling, perming, coloring, and skin care.

Offset Printing

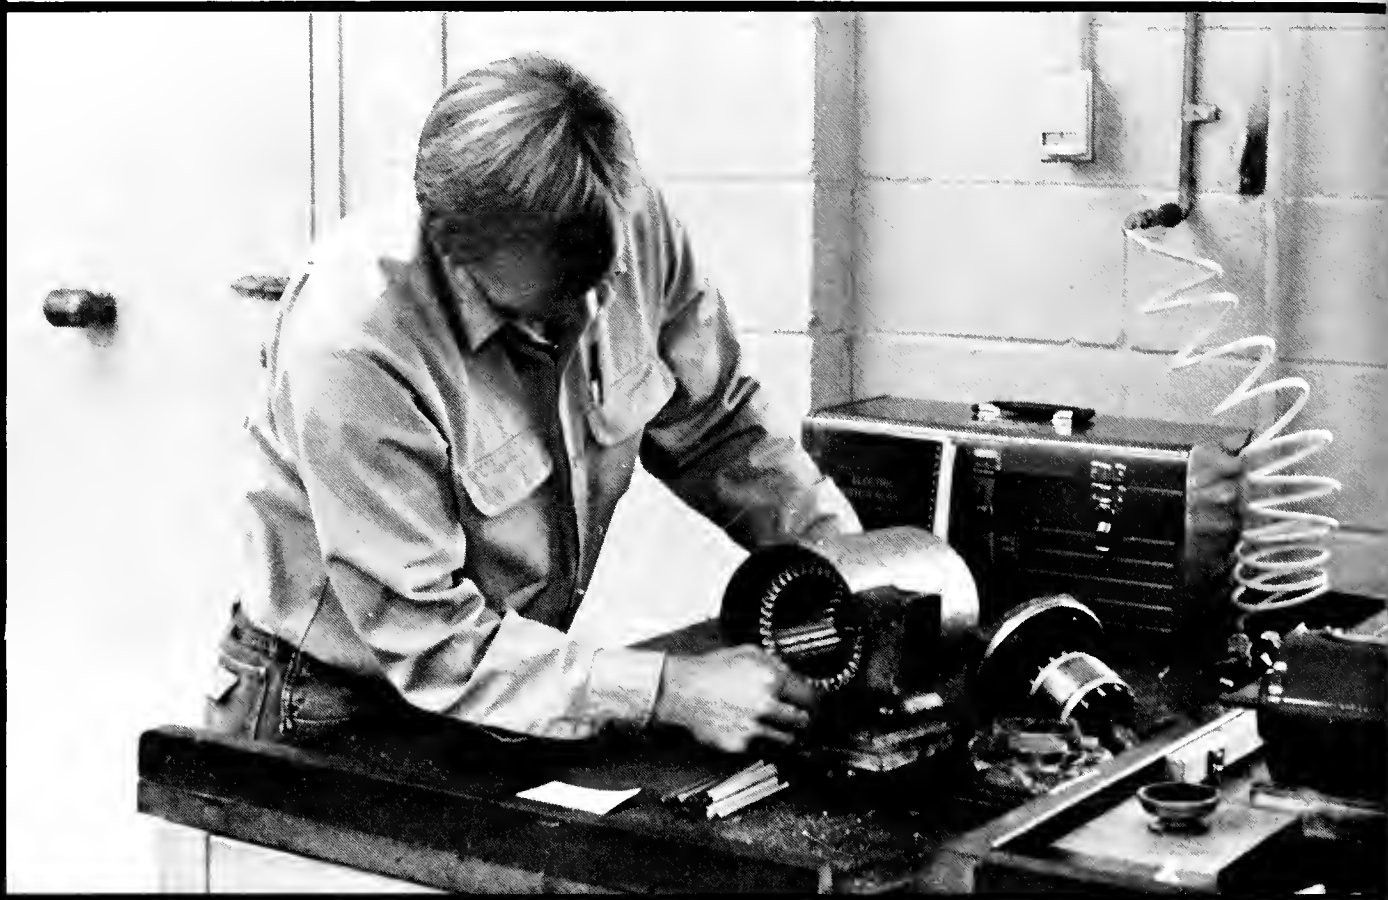

This program includes instruction in layout, pasteup, camera operation, plate making, color processing, printing and binding.

Brick Laying

This program is designed to prepare students for employment as brick masons.

Electric Motor Repair

This program enables students to develop skills and knowledge in stripping, recording, insulating, and other aspects of motor repair.

Automotive Mechanics

This program gives students experience in overhauling engines, transmissions, clutches, and in dealing with other problems that are encountered in repairing automobiles.

Machine Shop

This program is designed to prepare students for the beginning level of employment as machinists.

Refrigeration and Air Conditioning

This course provides students with instruction in the operating principles, procedures, techniques, and theory of air conditioning and refrigeration systems.

Agribusiness

This program enables students to learn the business aspects of owning and running a farm.

Diesel and Truck Mechanics

This program gives students experience in overhauling engines, transmissions, clutches, and in dealing with other problems that are encountered in repairing trucks and many types of diesel equipment.

Editor's Message

I guess this is probably the hardest part of a yearbook for an editor to complete, at least it has been for me. This is where the editor is supposed to tell you, the student, what a great yearbook we have put together to bring back all those memories of yesteryear when we are all old and feeble.

Though these few short years we spent here may seem so important to us now, we will never again be able to relive our past experiences. We can no longer exist in a world of temporality, but we must be concerned with something much more important, the future. We are living in an age of indecision, equivocation and paradox, a time when ideals are clouded and values are confused. Our parents present to us, the young people of today, a clear picture of the very ideas on which we should base our lives. Thus we live in a welter of conflicting values, with no clear cut cultural patterns of approval and disapproval, and we are cut adrift to find or create our own values. We, as the society of the future, must go "beyond the now" in our thoughts and actions and see ourselves with significant decisions to make!

With this basic thought in mind, I leave with you the greatest hopes and expectations that for each one of you this yearbook will serve as fond remembrance of Hinds Junior College.

The rest of this message is to my staff and advisor and really is of no interest to you. So, at this time I would like to express my utmost feeling to the special people who made this yearbook possible. First, to an outstanding advisor, Bob "Puffy" Hodges, who never seemed to be able to find that picture he was looking for. Thanks Bob, we couldn't have done it without you. To Martin "Martini" LeBouef who never seemed to find the little person who was taking negatives and hiding them. Thanks Martin, for all the good pictures. To "Pie Man" Kent McCoy who always had something to say about everything. Thanks Kent, for taking up the slack. To "B" Beatrice Jim who could never find enough liquid paper. Thanks Beatrice, for all of your good help. To "Tiger" Clint Langley who never could figure out the way we acted. Thanks Clint, for being there when I needed you. I would like to give a special thanks to the rest of the staff, to other people who helped, and last but not least to my very understanding teachers who saw me occasionally.
